It sits on a double lot and has a view of Alix Lake. When you walk in through the front door, you immediately notice an abundance of light in this home. There are numerous windows and sky lights that allow for the green space and lake view to the back. The kitchen was designed with function and open floor plan in mind. The kitchen/dining/living room area are all open to each other, allowing for flow between all rooms - perfect for family gatherings. You'll love the large island and extensive cabinetry, plus plenty of room for a large table. The living room is very large and has sky lights and a fireplace for that perfect ambience.
